

FROM YESTERDAY'S FIFTH EDITION.

Another Whittier War—Strutting Remarks from the Frontiers. CHICAGO, March 13.—Pembina dates of the 28th ult. gives news of another outbreak on the Reserve. The 1st Battalion of Canadian Volunteers are in open revolt, and put at defiance their officers and the civil authorities. Present indications are that the Government is defeated, and that all authority has passed into the hands of the Canadian troops stationed at the Upper Fort Garry of whom Dr. Schultz is recognized as head and leader.

Within a few days nominations will be made and elections be held for four members of the Dominion House of Commons. A rising of a soldiers' mob is apprehended, and all law-abiding citizens look forward with dread to the 4th of March, when the soldiers and Schultz's party propose to celebrate the anniversary of S. O. G.'s execution. We are absolutely without law, as the volunteers have taken authority into their own hands.

Another letter says the country people cannot visit Winnipeg without fear of being insulted and abused by lawless soldiers, and unless an immediate improvement is made in the condition of affairs, many people will abandon their farms and fly for refuge to the American side of the boundary. The village of Pembina is frequently visited by parties of drunken volunteers, who terrify and frequently abuse citizens. On the night of the 24th an American citizen named Andrew Nault was chased across the international boundary by a party of infuriated soldiers, and whose distance from this line was knocked down and savagely beaten by them and left for dead. Nault was one of the supporters of Riel's Provisional Government of last winter, which is the reason for the assault.

The Illinois Legislature. A meeting was held last night of prominent citizens to take into consideration the expediency of inviting the Legislature to hold its next session in this city, and a committee of nine was appointed to carry into effect the wishes of the meeting.

A SANGUINARY SOUTHERNER.

Ku-Klux on a Visit North. Knox's store, Broadway, was visited on Saturday afternoon by Thomas H. Broome, a Southerner temporarily staying in this city, who said that he wished to buy a hat. He was shown one by William E. Johnson, the head clerk, but in a contemptuous tone he asserted that it was not the last fall, and asked if they wanted to swindle him. Johnson then produced one of another style, which Broome pronounced imperfect, and in a quarrelsome manner demanded that every hat in the store should be displayed until he was satisfied. Johnson called a great number of hats, at last offered one the workmanship of which he declared was perfect. The following conversation then ensued:—

Broome—That hat perfect? It's a lie. Johnson—It is the best made hat we have in the store. Broome—If you say that hat is perfect you're a liar. Johnson—I must say that you're no gentleman to tell me I'm a liar. Broome—I tell you I don't you're a liar. I'm a Southerner, sir, and I ought you're—Yankies for five years, and I'm willing to do it again if there's ever a chance. Take that for your lie!

With this last remark Broome lifted a light umbrella and stabbed Johnson in the eye with its brass point. Johnson received a severe injury, but managed to get to the store door and call a policeman, who thereupon arrested Broome. The prisoner was brought before Justice Cox, at the Jefferson Market Police Court, yesterday. Justice Cox said: "My dear sir, you ought to know that the great things preceding the Rebellion here at the North passed away long ago. I commit you for trial at the General Sessions."—N. Y. THE COMMISSION BILLS.

An extraordinary Government for Philadelphia. A remarkable plan has been presented in the Pennsylvania Legislature for a municipal government of Philadelphia. The plan is mostly comprehended in bills creating three commissions, each composed of six members, who are to hold office five years, and whose powers are simple and their decisions irrevocable. The three commissions are a Board of Metropolitan Police, a Board of Water Commissioners, and a Board of Public Works. The act creating the first board provides that the commissioners who are named shall have full power to organize and control the police of the city, and to require the City Councils to appropriate all the money the board may need for those purposes, the Councils being peremptorily commanded to vote those requisitions.

The Board of Water Commissioners are to have complete control of the water supply for the city, and of all contracts for extending the works. The Councils are commanded to make appropriations at the demand of the board, and if necessary to levy a special tax for this department. The Board of Public Works are to have the entire management and control of the streets, buildings, bridges and sewers. The Mayor of Philadelphia, on receiving copies of these bills from Harrisburg, sent a message to the Councils, telling those bodies that should the bills be passed, they would be well advised without delay, for they would no longer be of service except to execute the will of the boards. The Councils have passed a resolution to call a grand indignation meeting; nearly all the newspapers have taken part in the indignation, and the people are much excited about it.—N. Y. Evening Post, editorial.

EIGHTEEN MONTHS WITHOUT FOOD.

The Fastest Nun of the Ursuline Convent. The Ursuline Convent in Morrisania resides Sister Agatha, a nun of the order, who has not, it is said, for the past eighteen months eaten food of any description. She has many times tried to eat, but in vain, as every morsel of food is immediately ejected from her mouth. Several eminent physicians who have studied her case say that the stomach is nearly closed, and that it is impossible to pass food into that organ. A few spoonfuls of weakened wine are daily administered, but the greater part of this, too, the stomach rejects. Small, however, as the quantity retained is, it is the only nourishment of any sort that Sister Agatha has had for many months.

When it was ascertained that she did not eject the Biscuits, the Lady Superior in charge of the convent, obtained some of the unbleached bread from the consecrated wafers are prepared, in the hope that with it she might prolong the life of her poor sister, but this was as unsuccessful as other attempts. Everything that medical skill could devise, of the kindness of the Sisters suggest for the relief of the invalid, has been done. Sister Agatha is very cheerful under this great affliction, and faithfully attends, so far as her decreasing strength will permit, to her religious duties. She sits up part of the day and occasionally busies herself with her needle. She grows weaker and weaker, however, but does not murmur, and awaits her dissolution with calmness.

ANOTHER RAILROAD CASUALTY.

A Lawyer Found Wounded upon the Railroad at East Liberty—Arm Amputated. Friday night, about ten o'clock, Mr. C. Straley, a lawyer from Penn. arrived at the south of the Pennsylvania Railroad bridge at East Liberty, found a man lying between the tracks, badly injured. Mr. Creighton, the general agent of the road, lives at East Liberty, and he was at once notified of the matter, and he and the medical aid of the road, James Hamilton, Esq., who lives at East Liberty, near the Union depot. Here he was placed in charge of Dr. Hamilton, who found that one arm was horribly mangled, and his jaw was also broken. He was quite delirious all through the night, but became rational towards morning, and gave his name as W. Morrison, and his residence, New Lisbon, Ohio. The arm was so badly crushed that Dr. Hamilton had to amputate it. His friends at New Lisbon were telegraphed to, and Saturday evening the father and brother of the injured man arrived here and repaired at once to the bedside of the unfortunate man. Mr. Morrison is a lawyer by profession, and well known in New Lisbon and vicinity. He had purchased a ticket for Philadelphia, and had intended to start for that city, which left the Union depot at 8 o'clock Friday evening. He had no recollection, however, of coming to Pittsburg, and could not realize that he had left New Lisbon. He had a ticket for Philadelphia in his pocket, so that he must have taken the eastern bound train.—Pittsburg Commercial.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

Narrow Escape of the Mayor of Galena. The Galena (Ill.) Gazette says: Mayor Robert Brand was struck by lightning this morning, and had a very narrow escape with his life. Waking up about 5 o'clock, he heard the rain falling, and determined to go out and adjust the tin pipe which conveys water to his cistern. While he was at work upon the pipe, which at that time leaned against the lightning-rod, the lightning struck the rod, and a portion of the electricity passed from the rod to the pipe, by which Mr. Brand received a stunning shock. Mr. Brand, in describing the sensation, says that in an instant his head felt as large as a bushel basket. A moment later he was unconscious. How long he lay in this state he does not know, as the family knew nothing of his condition at the time. When consciousness returned he was suffering from a fearful headache. He rallied and staggered to the wood-house, where he fell to the floor. By this time the family were stirring, and they picked him up and took him into the house. He was in his store a short time to-day, but is very lame, the lightning having passed down one of his legs, and burned it quite seriously. His escape was a most fortunate one, as a portion of the pipe which he held in his hand was melted, and the cistern-box was shattered to pieces.
